TRUMAN LIBRARY INSTITUTE RESEARCH GRANTS & AWARDS

Applications are now open to support research at the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and Museum in Independence, Missouri. Grants, awards, and fellowships provide assistance to emerging and established scholars whose contributions illuminate the critical issues of Truman's presidency and legacy.

★ DISSERTATION YEAR FELLOWSHIPS

Application Deadline: February 1

Up to two $20,000 Fellowships are given annually to support graduate students working on some aspect of Truman's life and career or of the public and foreign policy issues that were prominent during the Truman years. Recent recipients include Ian Seavey and Dexter Fergie.

★ RESEARCH GRANTS

Application Deadline: October 15 and April 1

Grants of up to $2,500 are awarded twice annually to offset the cost of conducting research at the Truman Library. The spring round includes one Hulston grant of up to $2,500 for a researcher who wishes to visit multiple research facilities. Recent recipients include Robert Jefferson and Elizabeth Bishop.

★ SCHOLAR'S AWARD

Application Deadline: Dec. 15 of odd-numbered years

Grants of $30,000 are made to established post-doctoral scholars engaged in work on some aspect of Truman's life and career or of prominent public and foreign policy issues during the Truman years. Recent recipients include Ian Ona Johnson, Nathan Citino, and Anne Karalekas.

★ HARRY S. TRUMAN BOOK AWARD

Submission Deadline: January 20, 2024

The Book Award recognizes the best book published within a two-year period dealing primarily and substantially with some aspect of U.S. history between 1945 and 1953, or with Truman's life or career. Recent recipients include Christian Ostermann, Derek Leebaert, and Michael Neiberg.
